POLITICAL PROGRAM.

It Is Fully Discussed by the Labor Leaders.

SEVERAL PLANKS ARE ADOPTED.

When the Famous Plank Ten Is Reached the Tug of War Begun—The Question Still Under Consideration When the Convention Adjourns—Details of the Denver Convention.

DENVER, Dec. 15.—On the reassembling of the convention of the American Federation of Labor yesterday President Gompers announced that John Burns had informed him that it would be necessary to cancel his engagement at Cincinnati and Detroit, as he must have an occasional day of rest.

The manner of adopting a joint label for the shoe workers, was brought up with majority and minority reports. As one of the three organizations uniting on the label is affiliated with the Knights of Labor the matter was deferred till the committee on conference reports.

A letter from Governor Waite was read. It was a characteristic document, touching on the action of Presidents Harrison and Cleveland in calling out the Federal troops for the settling of labor and other troubles and urging workingmen to unite in political action.

At 10 o'clock the "Political Program," which was submitted by the last convention to the various unions to be acted upon by them and then by the federation, was taken up. It was as follows:

WHEREAS, The trade unionists of Great Britain have by the light of expedience and the logic of progress, adopted the principle of independent labor politics as an auxiliary to their economic action, and

WHEREAS, Such action has resulted in the most gratifying success, and

WHEREAS, Such independent labor politics are based upon the following program, to wit:

First—Compulsory education.

Second—Direct legislation.

Third—A legal eight-hour work day.

Fifth—Liability of employers for injury to health, body or life.

Seventh—The abolition of the sweating system.

Eighth—The municipal ownership of streetcars and gas and electric plants for public distribution of light, heat and power.

Ninth—The nationalization of telegraphs, telephones, railroads and mines.

Tenth—The ownership by the people of all means of production and distribution.

Eleventh—The principle of referendum in all legislation. Therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the convention hereby endorse this political action of our British comrades, and,

RESOLVED, That this program and basis of a political labor movement be, and is hereby submitted for the consideration of the labor organizations of America, with the request that their delegates to the next annual convention of the American Federation of Labor be instructed on this most important subject.

The preamble was stigmatized by Mr. Strasser as a bold misrepresentation. This brought T. J. Morgan, author of the platform, to his feet with a very spirited rejoinder. Mr. Strasser moved that the preamble be stricken out. It was claimed that the labor unions of England had no political organization.

John F. Tobin of the boot and shoe workers stirred up a storm when he asserted that there was a political organization among laboring men, and that the presidents, secretaries and other officers of labor organizations use their positions to secure political election and appointment. Objection came from a dozen men, including President Gompers, Secretary Evans and other federation officers.

Mr. Tobin remarked that such a show of feeling was all the proof he wanted that his shot had hit the mark. He was applauded by T. J. Morgan and others.

When he had finished President Gompers took the floor and denounced as a lie the general charge which included him and defied Mr. Tobin, Mr. Morgan or any other delegate to point to a vulnerable place in his career as to honesty. He charged that it was a cowardly, covert attack upon organized labor. He was much clear through and his words were very bitter.

Others followed in a milder vein, but the display during the 10 minutes occupied by Tobin and Gompers showed the nature of the fight on the tapis between the supporters and opponents of the socialistic plank.

P. J. McGuire denied that the action of the English laboring men politically was based upon the planks given in the "Political Program." He read an extract from an English newspaper which charged John Burns with acting as a decoy for the Liberal party. He denounced the attempt to force the federation into a political party, each member had been assured upon joining his union that its pledges should not conflict with his political views in any particular. He said the 1,200 labor leaders of Great Britain who are holding municipal offices are greatly outnumbered by their American brethren in similar positions.

At 12 o'clock the previous question was called for and the rollcall resulted in the strike, 8 out of the preamble by a vote of 1,385 to 801. A vote was then on Plank L without debate. It was adopted. The convention decided to consolidate Planks 2 and 11, making the plank read: "Direct legislation through the referendum." It was adopted.

Delegate Strasser offered an additional plank demanding the repeal of the objectionable laws regarding seamen. He wanted it made one of the leading planks. Delegates favoring Plank 10 saw in the motion an attempt to change the numbering of the planks so as to sidetrack their favorite. Discussion on this subject was unfinished when, at 12:30 recess was taken.

On the reassembling of the convention, N. R. Hyssell of the mine workers, moved that a committee of three be appointed to draft resolutions in regard to the decision of Judge Woods and the imprisonment of Debs and others. N. R. Hyssell, Thomas J. Morgan and Thomas Tracy were appointed.

Mr. Strasser asked permission to withdraw his amendment to the political program with the understanding it would be reintroduced. Granted.

Plank 8 was taken up, and Mr. Weissman of the bakers' union moved to amend it to read: "An eight-hour day for all government employees, national, state and municipal." This was met by strong opposition.

Delegate Lloyd of Boston offered an amendment to read: "A legal work-day of not more than eight hours," which was adopted.

Plank 4 was taken up, and an amendment was offered eliminating the words "and home." It was claimed the home should be inviolate from the intrusion of government officials. On the other hand, it was claimed many so-called workingmen's homes need inspection as much as shops and factories. After lengthy discussion the plank as originally drawn was adopted.

Plank 5 was adopted without discussion, as were also Nos. 6 and 7.

Plank 8 was amended to include water works and adopted.

Plank 9 was adopted without discussion, though several delegates asked to be recorded as voting in the negative.

When the famous Plank 10 came up a few minutes before 4 o'clock, the tug of war was reached. Mr. Strasser of New Jersey stated he proposed to make the author of that plank declare himself. He offered as an amendment the addition of the words "by means of confiscation without compensation."

T. J. Morgan, author of the plank, seconded the amendment.

A. McCraith of Boston offered a substitute as follows: "The abolition of the monopoly system of land holding and the substituting therefor a title of occupancy and use only."

J. Mahlon Barnes of the cigar makers' union raised the point of order that a similar resolution had been already adopted by the federation and therefore could not be considered.

President Gompers ruled against the point and Mr. Barnes appealed from the decision of the chair. Half a dozen men wanted to discuss the appeal, but the president ruled that only the appellant and the appellant speak. Barnes demanded that the president vacate the chair during the discussion, but the latter declined. The chair was sustained by a vote of 37 to 15.

Most of the delegates came to the hall with speeches on Plank 10 prepared, and this fact no doubt did much to keep down inflammatory expression.

Mr. Strasser followed Mr. Morgan in opposition to socialism. He said socialism was not progressing. The socialistic growth in Germany was not socialism, he said, but the rise of democracy.

Mr. Braamwood of the Typographical union said so far as he was informed the delegates were all under instruction from their union as to their votes, and he thought all arguments were useless.

Others spoke at length, and the convention adjourned with the question still under consideration.

Thomas J. Morgan presented a chart to show the relative numbers and wealth of workingmen, business men, capitalists and millionaires. His speech was a vigorous advocacy of socialism. A five minute limit was made, but when his time was up half a dozen men volunteered to give him their time and he spoke half an hour. He denied the charge made in President Gompers' report that the socialistic idea was smuggled into the program. He said: "We have as our allies in the socialistic movement all kinds of labor saving machinery and we have the millionaires. They put Debs in jail today. I am glad of it. That is the kind of work that will make you vote to put men on the bench who will render such decisions."

Hardware Dealers' Association.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 15.—The members of the newly organized National Hardware association met yesterday for the purpose of completing their organization. The constitution previously reported, was formally ratified, and then the association proceeded to elect officers as follows: President, W. W. Supplee, Philadelphia; first vice president, John Altung, Chicago; second vice president, A. D. Langstaff, Memphis; executive committee, S. N. Bigelow, Boston; H. H. Bishop, Cleveland; Frank Schuping, St. Louis; R. F. Barker, Elmira, N. Y.; F. C. Fritzlafl, Milwaukee, and W. P. Smith, Knoxville. The place for holding the next convention was then arranged, Pittsburgh being selected. This concluded the formal work of the convention, which thereupon adjourned sine die.

The Carlisle Bill a Go.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The Democratic members of the banking and currency committee held an executive meeting yesterday immediately after the adjournment of the regular hearing, and after an hour's discussion decided to report the Carlisle bill without amendment.

She Was Despondent.

RICHMOND, Ind., Dec. 15.—Mrs. Frederick Davis, connected with one of the best known families in this city, suicided yesterday by shooting herself through the heart. She left a letter assigning despondency as the cause

SLIGHTLY IMPROVED.

The Condition of Business as Reported For Last Week.

R. G. DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW.

Over Ten Per Cent More People Employed Now Than a Year Ago—The Speculative Market Has Advanced a Little—The Iron Output Increased—Failures of the Week in the United States and Canada.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: Dun's review is enabled, by the kindness of several thousand manufacturers, who have forwarded statements of their payrolls for November this year, in 1893 and in 1892, to make a very encouraging comparison of earnings for that month, which shows an increase in total payments of 15.2 per cent over last year, but a decrease of 18.3 per cent in comparison with 1892.

A statement of hands employed shows that in the same establishments 10.3 per cent more persons were employed than a year ago, but 8.6 per cent less than in 1892. The average of earnings for over 250,000 hands is 4 per cent larger than in 1893, but 13.1-2 per cent less than in 1892, and this statement takes no account of hours of work in the month compared or of the establishments not working at all this year. In some of the industries more hands are at work than in 1892, but in others the decrease is large.

Contradictory changes in business are quite in order at this season. Neither the larger orders in some branches nor the depression of prices in others, afford a safe indication of the general movement. But the working force does not seem to diminish, though in most departments it is considerably below the capacity of works in operation, and the volume of business transacted is a little larger in comparison with last year than in November.

The speculative markets have advanced a little, though reasons are hard to find. Wheat is unchanged in price, although western receipts are as large as they were last year and Atlantic exports are $31,205 bushels, against 1,029,250 a year ago. Corn is a fraction weaker without any important change in movement, though the receipts continue remarkably large. The heavy receipts of cotton have broken down the price to 5.75 cents, in spite of a strong speculative interest looking for some recovery from the lowest point on record.

The detailed reports regarding the chief industries are not altogether encouraging. The iron output increased during the month of November and was 168,762 tons weekly Dec. 1, against 162,666 Nov. 1, but the increase in stocks unsold was 50,149 tons, which averages 11,700 tons per week, indicating that the increase in production during the month of November was not supported by the demand for products. Accordingly prices have been declining, the general average of articles being only 54.9 of the average in October, 1890, against 55.7 on Dec. 1. The Pittsburgh markets shows most weakness, Bessemer pig being quoted at $10.15, and grey forge offered at $9.30, and bar iron selling at 90 cents, but in structural forms the eastern demand is sufficiently large to cause a slight advance in beams. The minor metals are stronger, though apparently for speculative reasons only.

The textile manufacturers are on the whole weaker, although sales of wool for the past week, in part for speculative purposes, have been larger than one year or two years ago and for two weeks of December and have been 9,610,200 pounds, against 7,857,200 last year and 10,628,800 in 1892. The orders for spring wool do not materially increase, but the current demand for immediate delivery continues unusually large. Cotton goods are demoralized by some reduction and by the announcement of a great auction sale of 27,000 pieces by Bliss, Fabry and Company, and the irregularity in staples increases, while print cloths are steady.

Failures for the past week have been $49 in the United States against $39 last year, and 40 in Canada against 40 last year.

BELOW THE LIMIT.

The Gold Reserve in the United States Treasury Takes Another Tumble.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The gold reserve yesterday took another downward plunge by the withdrawal of $4,875,000, leaving the net reserve at the close of business $96,341,884, or $3,658,116 below the $100,000,000 limit. Of this amount withdrawn $4,550,000 was taken from the subtreasury at New York and $325,000 from Boston.

Assistant Curtis in speaking of the situation thought that the heavy demand for gold during the last week was to meet dividend and other payments falling due on Jan. 1 of each year. During the first two weeks in each December sterling exchange, always advanced and very often to the shipping point as is the case at present. After this week, Mr. Curtis thought the exportations of gold would materially decrease if it did not cease altogether. Of course it was a matter of regret that our monetary system was such as to permit these heavy withdrawals against our will. Until congress took the matter in hand nothing could be done except to hand out the gold whenever demanded.

Operations Resumed.

MUNCIE, Ind., Dec. 15.—The Port Glass works, which has been idle for several months, has resumed work with three-fourths of the regular force, or about 75 employees.

JEWETT'S APPOINTMENT CANCELED.

The United States Will Take No Part in the Armenian Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The United States will take no part in the investigation in the Armenian outrages. Finding that the limitations imposed by President Cleveland upon the functions of United States Consul Jewett were such as to prevent his joint action with the representatives of the other powers, the sultan has withdrawn his invitation to the United States to appoint a commissioner, and consequently Mr. Jewett's appointment lapses.

In deference to the religious sentiment of the country, as voiced by an incredible number of petitions and resolutions of mass meetings and private communications from respectable citizens, the president decided to allow Mr. Jewett to investigate and report upon the actual state of the Christians in Armenia, but in doing so he felt obliged, in order to make it plain to the powers of Europe, that he had no intention of intruding upon their domain, to await a request from the sultan, backed by one of the signatory powers.

As an extra precaution against involving the United States in any European disagreements that might follow the investigation, Mr. Jewett was instructed to make an independent inquiry and report only to the state department. These last instructions were apparently unpalatable to the porte, and so, by the withdrawal of its invitation, Mr. Jewett's appointment is canceled.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

The Pension Appropriation Bill Passed and Other Pension Matters Considered.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The time of the house was consumed with debate on the pension appropriation bill, and although it abounded in charges and countercharges, it lacked interesting details. The bill carries $141,381,570, and was passed without amendment.

The Hitt resolution of inquiry calling on the secretary of state for the correspondence relating to the payment of $425,000 to the bill in connection with the far seal controversy, was adopted.

The evening session was devoted to the consideration of private pension bills and the house adjourned over until Monday.

The senate was not in session.

Contractors Arrested.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 15.—Some sensational testimony was brought out yesterday at the investigation into the frauds practiced by contractors in the erection of new school house buildings. Several bricklayers, who worked on a number of the buildings while under the course of construction, testified that they had been instructed by contractors to build a flow wall and fill them in with all sorts of rubbish. Late in the afternoon the school authorities, fearing that the contractors implicated in the frauds and work would leave the city, swore out warrants for the arrest of certain contractors, and officers were started out to take them into custody.

Chickamauga Monument.

FRANKFORT, Ind., Dec. 15.—The survivors of the old Tenth Indiana infantry, a number of whom reside in this city and county, are taking steps to erect a monument on the battlefield of Chickamauga, where the regiment sustained its greatest loss. It is altogether probable that a petition will be presented to the legislature asking an appropriation of several thousand dollars.

Third Pen. Official to Suicide.

JOLIET, Ill., Dec. 15.—Captain James S. Miller killed himself by shooting Friday at his suburban home. He was chief engineer at the Joliet penitentiary 22 years, retiring with change of administration. This makes three officials who have suicided in a few weeks. The other two, Gallus Mueller, chief bookkeeper of the penitentiary, and ex-Sheriff Robert Hinton.

Charged With Murder.

DALLAS, Ga., Dec. 15.—Hamp Hale has been arrested for the murder of Jim King last September. Hale lived in the house with King, who disappeared, and Hale, not being able to give a satisfactory explanation, a search was made and King's body was found in a ditch. When the search was commenced Hale shipped out, but was captured and jailed.

Will Serve Seven Years.

PORTLAND, Ind., Dec. 15.—William Johnson, who assaulted and nearly killed Frederick Lamont, the clown of John Robinson's circus, and robbed him of $500 last September, has been adjudged guilty in the Randolph county circuit court. He was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. Lamont is a resident of near Cincinnati.

Under the Cars.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Dec. 15.—Swan Johnson, 26, was struck by a Grand Trunk train yesterday, and both feet were crushed. It is believed that he attempted suicide, as he had been acting strangely of late. He wanted the officers to tie a stone around his neck and throw him into the river.

Assaulted by Highwaymen.

CANTON, O., Dec. 15.—A. G. Brumbagh was assaulted by highwaymen within four blocks of the public square shortly after dark last night. His watch was taken, but recovered. This is the fourth hold-up in the same section in three weeks. It is the best residence portion of the city.

Shelbyville, Ind., Dec. 15.—City Marshal Sparks has captured Wilber Gully, who is wanted at Crawfordsville, Ind., for shooting Night Operator Schlemmer in an attempt to rob the depot. The crime was committed on the night of Nov. 24.

DEBS FOUND GUILTY

The Great Strike Leader Held For Contempt.

SENT TO PRISON FOR SIX MONTHS

The Case Will Be Appealed, but the Sentence Is Considered a Light One. The Court Was Not Limited in the Extent of the Sentence—Others Sentenced With Him For Shorter Terms.

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—Engene V. Debs was found guilty of contempt by Judge Woods and sentenced to six months' imprisonment and the rest of the defendants to three months in jail, with the exception of McVean, who has not been sentenced yet.

All of the defendants were in court with the exception of Leroy M. Goodwin, whose whereabouts are not known and who could not therefore be notified.

The contempt for which the defendants were arranged was a violation of an injunction issued July 2 by Judges Woods and Grosscup, which forbade all men to interfere with trains in any manner whatever.

It was claimed by the United States district attorney that Debs and the other officers and directors of the American Railway union repeatedly violated this order of the court by issuing directions to their lieutenants all over the country to call out the men and advising the crippling of the railroad system of the United States, if possible. The defense made was that Debs and his assistants had a right to order strikes and to continue to conduct their side of the fight against the railroads.

The sentence is generally considered a light one. The case will be appealed.

In speaking of the decision, Attorney Darrow, who represented defendants, said: "The decision is bad law, but the sentence is remarkably lenient."

Vice President Howard said he was prepared to expect anything.

President Debs was more cast down than any of the others.

It was in the discretion of the court to sentence the men to any term of years he choose within constitutional limits, and to impose any fine he thought fit.

DEATH OF HENRY R. POMEROY.

A Brilliant Mind and a Noted Career Passed Away.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 15.—Henry R. Pomeroy, aged 70, died yesterday at the city hospital. Although he was an object of charity at the time of his death, he had been a personal friend and neighbor of Lincoln, a companion of Grant and an acquaintance of Arthur. He was once part owner of the St. Louis Globe Democrat. He spent several years in the mines of the southwest writing letters for The Globe Democrat and for the London Times.

He wrote two books on mining and his knowledge of the subject brought him to the notice of General Grant, with whom he made a trip through the southwest. Grant afterward recommended him as consul to Chihuahua, Mexico.

Pomeroy was several times an inventor. He had a project for making rain. He invented a psychrometer to indicate the moisture and temperature in rooms.

Last winter Pomeroy and his wife were in the county poorhouse, and the wife is now at the Friendly Home for Women. They claim to have wealthy relatives.

CYPRESS SWAMP FOREST DOOMED.

Government Land to Be Cleared of Valuable Timbers.

PRINCETON, Ind., Dec. 15.—Frank Leonard, residing near Hammond, has undertaken the development of the lumber interests of what is known as the cypress swamp, located west of Decker's station, 18 miles north of here. It is a body of government land, lying between the White and Wabash rivers, and comprises about 1,800 acres of well-timbered land, not a stick of which has ever been cut. Mr. Leonard a few months ago purchased all the standing timber, which consists of red oak, ash, gum, sycamore and, other valuable kinds.

A spur from the Evansville and Terre Haute railroad has been built from Decker's, six miles out into the swamp. Mr. Leonard is now putting in one of the finest saw mills in southern Indiana, with an equal capacity in the output of lumber, to any mill in the state. It will take a long time for the mill to finish this growth of timber. A large number of people will be employed, and a little town will be built, called Cypress.

CALLED TO ACCOUNT.

Millinery Manager Arrested Charged With Embezzlement.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 15.—Jacob Weiner, manager of the millinery house of Rachel Newgarden, was arrested last night on the charge of embezzlement. The warrant was issued at the request of Charles O. Roemer, who says Weiner purchased goods amounting to $617.85 from the firm of Joseph Lazarus & Company, Cincinnati, by representing that the house was in a good condition financially when he knew otherwise.

The Newgarden firm went into the hands of a receiver Thursday. It is also said that Weiner purchased $10,000 worth of goods from other firms by misrepresenting the condition of the house by which he was employed.

NORTH LEWISBURG, O., Dec. 15.—While Will Cross was drying a cartridge on the stove it exploded, tearing the index finger from his hand.

For Week, 6 cents
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1894.

The income tax opponents have given up at last. They are now willing to let "the tax kill itself." But it will not do anything of the kind.

The tariff on live poultry now is 2 cents a pound and on dressed poultry 3 cents a pound, a reduction of 1 and 2 cents a pound respectively, compared with the McKinley bill. The editor of the Ledger, however, would have his readers believe that turkeys were placed on the free list by the Wilson bill, and that turkey raisers are now suffering from "the blight of Democratic rule."

An echo of the November landslide comes from Boston. The Hub had been steadfastly Democratic for several years and pulled through safely in November, but Tuesday the Republicans elected the Mayor and all the Aldermen. Wonder if Brer Marsh will ever hear this?—Public Ledger.

Oh, yes, we're heard from Boston, but you don't seem to have gotten in complete returns from the municipal elections in Massachusetts. The Democrats captured the manufacturing city of Lawrence, electing the Mayor and getting control of the City Council. The present city government is Republican. They also elected Mayors in Chicopee, Pittsburg and Quincy. They lost the Mayorality in Holyoke and Marlboro by a few votes in each instance, but elected a solid Board of Aldermen in the former and a majority of the Councilmen in the latter.

The City Council at Lexington voted $1,000 to help pay the expenses of the exposition, to begin there Monday.

Masses at St. Patrick's Church to-morrow as follows: 7:30, 9 and 10:30 a. m. Sunday school at the usual hour. Vespers and benediction 3 p. m.

Fielding Powell and Miss Ella McDonough, recently adjudged of unsound mind, were taken to the Lexington asylum yesterday by Sheriff Jefferson.

There will be regular services at Mitchell Chapel Sunday. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. All invited.

LEONIDAS ROBINSON, Pastor.

About five o'clock yesterday evening a fire broke out in one of the lower rooms of the cotton mill, doing only slight damage. The department was not called out, the force at the mill extinguishing the flames.

JOHN WHEELER, Market street, is the leader in toys of all kinds, the finest and purest candies for the least money, and fresh oysters, celery and fruits. Now is the time to buy, as all his toys and candies must go during the holidays.

Call and see the most beautiful line of cut glass ever seen here. These goods are strictly American cut, not cheap imported glass. To introduce this class of goods, I have marked them down at low prices. P. J. MURPHY, the jeweler.

A LARGE crowd was present at the Y. M. C. A. hall last evening to witness the closing of the mission night school. An interesting programme was rendered, after which the pupils were given a treat of candies, nuts and cakes. This school is doing excellent work, and Mr. J. M. Scott and his assistants deserve much praise and should be encouraged in every way possible.

POLICEMAN McKELLUP was seized with an attack of heart failure while walking along Market street, near the Central, about 2 o'clock this morning and fell to the pavement. Some parties went to his assistance and carried him into the hotel. A physician was hastily summoned who administered restoratives, and Mr. McKellup was soon able to be removed to his home in a conveyance.

Of course you will read Browning & Co.'s big advertisement in this issue, and if you are wise you will then call at their store and secure some of the many bargains they are offering for the holiday trade. They mention some in the advertisement. See their window display. It is one of the handsomest in Maysville. They will take pleasure in showing goods, and booking an order for you.

PUBLIC OFFICERS.

An Important Decision of the Court of Appeals on the Subject of Salaries

(Frankfort Argus)

The Court of Appeals, in the case of the Commonwealth against Addams, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, to determine the authority of the Court of Appeals to fix the compensation of Mr. Addams' deputies, has handed down an opinion of considerable importance to office holders in Kentucky. Under the provisions of section 246 of the new Constitution, it is provided as follows: "No public officer except the Governor, shall receive more than $5,000 per annum as compensation for official services, independent of the compensation of legally authorized deputies and assistants, which shall be fixed and provided by law." The Court of Appeals construes this section to mean that the Legislature must fix the compensation of public officers, the statute directing the Judges of the Court of Appeals to fix the salaries of the Clerk's deputies being declared unconstitutional because it is a delegation of legislative power.

This opinion will prevent Sheriffs, Jailers and Clerks of courts from fixing the salaries of their deputies on the ground that it is the delegation of legislative power, which is prohibited under the Constitution.

The same question may arise in fixing the salaries of city and county officials and their deputies, as there seems to be no exception made in the Constitution to any officer, all of them being classed public officers.

A special from Frankfort to the Louisville Post says that the decision affects the salary of every County Judge, Commissioner, Superintendent and Treasurer, and, perhaps, other county officers in the State.

Under the Constitution, section 60, it is provided: "No law except such as relates to the sale, loan or gift of vinous, spirituous or malt liquors, bridges, turnpikes or other public roads, public buildings or improvements, fencing, running at large of stock, matters pertaining to common schools, paupers and the regulation by counties, cities, towns or other municipalities of their local affairs, shall be enacted to take effect upon the approval of any authority than the General Assembly, unless otherwise expressly provided in this Constitution."

Section 140 of the Constitution reads: "There shall be established in each county now existing or which may hereafter be created in this State a court to be styled the County Court, to consist of a Judge, who shall be a conservator of the peace, and shall receive such compensation for his services as may be prescribed by law."

When it came to the prescribing of the law, the Legislature in section 1072 of Kentucky Statutes said: "The County Judge shall receive an annual salary, to be fixed at a reasonable amount by the Fiscal Court and paid in quarterly installments by the county." In section 1083 substantially the same provision was made for the allowance to County Commissioners, and in section 4419 to County Superintendents with the exception that it fixes a scale of from 8 to 20 cents per pupil, and in section 934 to County Treasurers, with the exception that it limits the salary to $1,000 per annum. In the matter of the authority under section 1776, referring to Kenton, Campbell and Fayette counties or counties having more than 40,000 population and less than 75,000, for the County Judge to fix the salary of each deputy or assistant of the various county officers mentioned therein "by an order of record and shall not exceed $1,200 per annum." Ex-Chief Justice Hines, who represented A. Addams, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, in his case against the Commonwealth, reported in the Kentucky Law Reporter, May 19, 1894, and opinion delivered by Judge Pryor, said that the Legislature clearly, according to the Constitution, could not delegate its power to a court to fix salaries. This was a test case of section 1777, delegating authority to the Court of Appeals to fix the salary of the deputy clerks of that court, and the court held:

"Section 246 of the Constitution, providing that 'no public officers except the Governor shall receive more than $5,000 per annum as compensation for official services, independent of the compensation of legally authorized deputies and assistants, which shall be fixed and determined by law, means that the Legislature shall regulate this compensation, and that branch of the government has no power to delegate this right or duty to another branch of the government as to make the judiciary its agent for fixing such compensation."

At Vanceburg yesterday morning, Wm. Cooper, a prominent stock man, and Richard Pell, his friend, were riding along Second street, when Cooper observed something bright lying in the mud. He dismounted and picked up what he thought to be a toy pistol. He leveled it at Pell, and said, "Now, you want to die, die!" and pulled the trigger. It was a self-cocking bulldog revolver. Luckily the aim was not good, and Pell escaped.

The Court of Appeals has decided that Mrs. Mary H. Preston's will, in which she makes large bequests to Bishop McCloskey, of Louisville, and Bishop Maes, of Covington, to found Catholic schools and benevolent institutions in Trimble and Fayette counties, must be admitted to probate in Trimble County. This point of probate is important to the heirs, who are preparing to contest the will, and desired by its probate to select the court to try the contest.

NEXT week will be a busy one for holiday shoppers. Keep your goods before the people. Advertise, if you want the holiday trade.

Miss ELLA McDONOUGH, whose home is near Moransburg, has been adjudged of unsound mind, and was taken to the asylum at Lexington.

SOME merchants have already contracted for extra advertising space in the BULLETIN all next week. If you are wise, you will do likewise.

THE contest of James P. Collier, Republican, against Andrew Fountain, Democrat, over the Sheriffalty of Fleming County has been given up by Collier.

ONE of the pleasant events of the week was a surprise euchre party given in honor of Miss Minnie Hanley, of Mayslick, who is the guest of Miss Nellie Lally, of Lindsay street.

ONE of largest single orders for flowers ever shipped out of Maysville was sent to Washington City Thursday by the well-known nurserymen and rose-growers, C. P. Dieterich & Bro. It consisted of 1,000 hybrid perpetual roses.

If you haven't seen Ballenger's stock of holiday goods, don't fail to do so at once. A more elegant line of beautiful diamonds, lovely gems, fine Dresden clocks, cut glass, and fancy gold and silver novelties was never before displayed in Maysville. No trouble to find something appropriate for Christmas presents.

THE SHOE FACTORY.

It Has a Standing Order From One Dealer Now for 900 Pairs a Week.

Superintendent Brodt of the Maysville shoe factory is feeling good over that new industry's increasing business.

Some time ago he made a sale of 1,400 pairs to a dealer, and the party was so well pleased with the shoes that he gave Mr. Brodt a standing order for 150 pairs a day,—900 pairs a week.

The company's business is bound to increase right along, as the factory is turning out an excellent quality of goods.

Mr. Brodt is arranging with a number of drummers who sell ladies' and gent's shoes to carry the Maysville shoe as a side line. An increase in the capacity of the factory at an early day is among the probabilities.

THE offerings of white burley tobacco on the Cincinnati "breaks" have reached over 100,000 hogsheads this year, 22,000 hogsheads more than last year.

D. HUNT & Son have made sweeping reductions on prices of cloaks, and are offering big bargains in handkerchiefs. See figures in Monday's advertisement.

NO BETTER medium than the BULLETIN through which to reach the people. If you have anything special for the holiday trade, advertise it. Tell the people.

WHEN purchasing a present, buy the new and stylish goods. Hopper & Co. will show you the late things. Their czarinas are beautiful. Do not miss seeing them.

BISHOP MAES, of Covington, has been appointed by Cardinal Gibbons a member of the Committee of Arrangements for the approaching Eucharistic Congress at Washington University.

USEFUL Xmas presents will be appreciated more than ever this year, and before buying you should see Chenoweth's stock of combs and brushes, pocket-books, card cases, perfumes and toilet preparations, at prices so low they will surprise you.

THE Bureau of Engraving and Printing is working night and day now turning out postage stamps. The average daily issue is 17,500,000. The average consumption is 8,000,000, but for the next three weeks during the holiday season it will be nearly double this, or 16,000,000.

BOWEN KNOCKED OUT.

Result of an Eighteen Round Prize Fight at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 15.—George Lavigne and Andy Bowen fought last night in the Auditorium club in the presence of about 4,000 people. The purse was $3,000, divided $2,500 to the winner and $500 to the loser. John Duffy was chosen referee. He announced before the fight that a decision would be given at the end of the 25th round—in other words the contest would not be declared a draw.

Both men were over weight, Bowen weighing 133 and Lavigne 135. The weight agreed upon was 130 pounds.

In the first round Lavigne slipped to the floor twice. Up to the third round he was the aggressor and had the better of the fighting, though Bowen landed some stiff body blows. In the fourth round Lavigne had all the best of the fight, landing several heavy right-handers on Bowen's face, staggering the house man as the gong sounded.

The fifth and sixth rounds were also in Lavigne's favor, though little or no effective work was done.

In the seventh round Bowen was cut over the eye. Lavigne looked every inch a winner.

The eighth and ninth rounds were both Lavigne's. Bowen was clearly outclassed.

At the end of the ninth round Bowen had bellows to mend while Lavigne was unscratched and seemingly as fresh as when he began.

In the tenth and eleventh rounds, Lavigne had much the best of the fight, Bowen being knocked all over the ring.

In twelfth and thirteenth round it was the same old story, Lavigne did all the forcing.

In the fifteenth round Bowen was nearly downed by a heavy right-hander on the jaw and would have been felled had not the gong saved him.

In the seventeenth round Bowen was knocked and fell down. He received terrible punishment, though he took it gamely.

In the 18th round Lavigne feinted with his right, and as Bowen ducked his elbow he caught Bowen's chin. As Bowen straightened up Lavigne's right caught him on the point of the jaw and Bowen fell back, his head striking the platform with full force. He was poked up unconscious. Efforts to revive him proved fruitless and at midnight he was taken to the Mercy hospital. Here he lay until 6 o'clock this morning before he recovered consciousness.

Lavigne and his party were arrested and held to await the result of Bowen's injuries.

BOUGHT HIS HONORS.

Police Captain Creeden Paid $12,000 For His Pardon.

New York, Dec. 15.—Police Captain Creeden confessed before the Lexow committee yesterday that he paid $12,000 to secure his captaincy. A few hours later he was suspended from the force by the board of police commissioners on recommendation of Superintendent Byrnes, who was instructed to prepare charges against him. The Lexow committee had agreed that Creeden be granted immunity from punishment for his purchase of a captaincy and when the action of the police commissioners became known, they, as well as Superintendent Byrnes, were subpoenaed to appear before the investigating body.

Captain Creeden's confession was the biggest sensation yet brought forth by the Lexow committee. In itself, the captain's statement was merely a confirmation of testimony elicited before the committee heretofore, but the startling facts, essentially interwoven with this sensational exposure, affects the taint of dishonor and corruption upon men who held some of the most responsible offices in the gift of the community.

But public censure is not heaped on Creeden's head. He had served in the local police department for 30 years with honor and distinction. He is a war-scarred veteran, whose record shows that in 23 engagements of the civil war he risked his life for his country. The captain's fault is forgotten by the popular mind in sympathy for his present trying position and respect for his past record.

A LOVER'S MURDEROUS ACT.

Disappointed in His Suit He Seeks Deadly Vengeance.

ST. MARY'S, Ind., Dec. 15.—The city of Terre Haute is much disturbed by the attempted murder of Mrs. Joseph Montgomery. The would-be assassin is supposed to be Isaac Bridges, a disappointed suitor for the hand of Miss Daisy Davis, the beautiful sister of the injured lady. Bridges has frequently importuned Miss Daisy to marry him, but she declined his addresses.

Mrs. Montgomery, Miss Davis and Miss Maggie Gibson attended a theatrical entertainment, and while returning home, and within a few steps of their residence, Bridges stepped from a place of concealment, saying to Mrs. Montgomery that he wanted to talk with her. Mrs. Montgomery refused to listen to him, and when she attempted to pass him, Bridges grabbed her and tore the bonnet off her head. The woman then started to run, screaming for help, and Bridges leveled his revolver and fired four shots, two bullets entering the fleshy part of Mrs. Montgomery's back, just below the shoulder blade. One of the bullets is supposed to have penetrated her lungs. After firing the shots, Bridges ran away.

The family report that Bridges has been annoying Miss Davis for some weeks, frequently writing notes to her and approaching her on the street, soliciting an interview. Several times she has been compelled to run in order to avoid him. He then frequently threatened to kill the girl, as well as the Montgomery family, whom he accused of interfering with his suit. Several weeks ago poison was dropped into the flour barrel, which had been left open in the summer kitchen, and the whole family was dangerously prostrated by eating of bread made of the doctored stuff. Mr. Davis, father of the girl, has not yet recovered. Mrs. Montgomery is the wife of Joseph Montgomery.

NEW JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

The Frankfort Argus Thinks There is No Question as to When Their Terms Begin.

The BULLETIN copied an article a few days ago from the Winchester Democrat on the question as to when the newly-elected Justices of the Peace shall enter office. The Frankfort Argus thinks there is no doubt on the point, and says their term of office will begin on the first Monday in January, 1895. The Argus says: "This provision is part of the organic law, and all the Justices now in office and who have not been re-elected under the provisions of the new Constitution must retire on the day named. While the present Justices were elected under the provisions of the old Constitution, the provisions of the new instrument shorten their terms, and for this there is no remedy."

"A Constitutional convention can abolish an office or a court, or extend it, as it deems proper. It is supreme in its authority, and there is no power to prevent the execution of its mandate where the provisions are plain and unmistakable, as it is in case of the entrance of the new Justices of the Peace into office on January 7th next."

THE sales of leaf tobacco in Louisville market this week were the heaviest ever known so early in the season. The offerings Wednesday were 915 hogsheds, and Thursday were 935. Considering the rather poor quality of the offerings and the general depreciation in farm products, the prices are satisfactory and the market is firm, says the Courier-Journal.
